Some Thoughts

As I bundle up in my many layers, sweaters, scarfs, thermals, so thick that I can barely even move, I can't get money out of my pocket, and I can barely keep my bag on my shoulder; I head out into the frigid cold and hustle through the crowd, keeping my eyes down, focused 10 feet in front of me. Don't make eye contact, it's too much hassle. Keep your eyes down, and keep moving, fast as you can. What a great way to have to get by huh? But that is NYC in the winter. It's always a hustle, to do anything. Anywhere else though, it's cold, but you don't even have to worry, you're always in and out of a car, so it's not worth the bundling up process. Here, you walk and walk and walk and freeze. What is worse is the 'walking down the street' mindset — of hustle bustle and don't look at anyone. Then again, it's all you can do, cause if you don't move fast, then you won't get anywhere, forget that you have to walk far, but there are so many people that they will all walk right over you, if you don't stand your ground and keep up the pace. The rat race. One of many, running along side the many others, each one is without identity - a faceless body in the crowd. And then the train, once you get on, it is hot - of course, and everywhere you go, takes forever. It makes it nearly impossible to get anything done — each little daily task becomes a big ordeal, very time consuming. Each and every little trip you want to make involves yet another subway, another transfer... Subway tunnels are endless. There is an entire city underground this city full of tunnel passageways all interconnecting to each other - which never stop - many abandoned... just imagine how much is there, if we were to look. But would you want to? Surely people live down there, it'd be a good home, as good as any, I suppose.

My mother came for a visit recently, and we went up to 155th St. to the American Indian Museum, it was awesome - first of all to come out of the train, and be in a totally new place - which seemed to foreign to everywhere else. It really freaks me out to think of how many places there are like that just in this city - it's immense. You can never see it all, probably people that have lived here their entire life haven't. Then again, do you need to? Are they not all just neighborhoods, for the people who live there? I don't know. But I can remember when I first came to the city and I had a lot of energy to explore and see things, and I saw some great thing. But then I sort of found my niche and got into a certain groove, and of course I have to admit that was about the greatest thing that has ever happened. But sometimes I wonder, am I missing out on something? Should I be "broadening my horizons" and taking advantage of all these cultural (possibilities) here... how can I find the energy? You can spend the entire day on the subway just getting to one place. My mom and I road the train and road the train, it seemed like forever. She is really into the trains and has to ride in the front - to see where we are going. I got to admit it did give me a new perspective on the subway, and it did make it sort of adventurous, but ... still, how can you do this on a regular basis - esp. when you have to go to work and school and all this other shit. It's all I can do to get myself to work and home again. I certainly don't find time calling to me saying, gee let's get on the subway (a horrid thought in itself) and go 150 blocks away to see what is there. I feel like I'm passing up some sort of good opportunity when there is so much going on here, and it certainly goes a lot further than the east village and punk rock shows — but at the same time, well... it's a question of energy & time.

I really seem to be having a hard time keeping up with everything. Here I am in the last semester of college and I feel like everything is exploding! Mid-term time already and on one hand I'm happy to have only 2 months, but I'm also terrified; not so much of the graduation thought and not knowing what the hell I'm going to do with myself (besides retire, ha! and relax), but more so terror of all the work that I have to get pulled together with in the next 2 months!! I mean, when I can't seem to get anything done as it is, but I'm doing so much that I can't even remember the morning of the evening I'm in. I've often laughed when I saw people yelling at cars and taxi's, for that matter yelling at themselves as they walk down the street—but suddenly I seem to understand it, feel it—I'm finding myself in that position of wanting to kill people walking down the street. So each day I seem to be battling the idiots out there, just wanting to be able to stay home—but never seeming to do so. There is always somewhere that I am supposed to be, and I never seem to catch up. I used to be a punctual person, but now I always seem to be late for everything that I do, always trying to cram in one more thing into a already ridiculous schedule. Sometimes I just want to say fuck it, it's not normal, no one else carries on like this. Everyone else knows how to relax, they kick back, watch tv, hang out. But shit, I don't really want to do that. I mean I hate that mentality, of wasting away & doing nothing. Yet I feel like I'm on the edge of totally losing it. I mean one person in a store or on the street in the course of my day should not make me totally lose my emo-balance, but that seems to be all it takes. So I guess that is actually the way most people are here, in the city because there are just so many damn people, and everyone is completely on edge at all times, because they have no space!! Seems sort of silly really, when you think about it. I still succumb to this irrational behavior. Walking down the street, getting pissed at someone who can't walk straight, fantasizing by the end of the day, of knocking people off, just to get them out of my way. Ha. And all the while not looking at anyone; then you don't have to feel bad when you knock them down. OK, I exaggerate, but not really. I think that walking down the street during rush hour is actually pretty representative of life in the city. I mean—push, push push as far as you can, get all that you can out of whoever you can, don't look at anyone—then you may have to acknowledge them, and deal with them just push your way by, and don't slow down for a minute or else they'll be pushing you along to be lost in the shuffle. OK it sounds paranoid delusional—it is, but it is also reality. A reality that I am so tired of. I swear it takes life and valuable energy away from you. I mean just the thought of life elsewhere, any other normal place, is a melloing thought.

Think of all the people that are condensed into this small space. Think of all the garbage generated by all those people and look at all the recycled materials just one large apartment complex can generate. It makes it all seem worthwhile, but then again, where is it actually going? Possibly still to the same landfill, filling up, all our careless waste tossed aside, selfishly, and carted away from our own area. How obnoxious to think that our trash is taken hundreds of miles away to put put into an empty hole in the ground, which has been raped of it's original material, probably to be carted off to yet another city, to build yet another large building. Ever stop to think that the materials do have to come from some where. What happens when the run out? They will one day. What happens when the countryside no longer exists? When everyone from the city, moves into the country, which then becomes a smaller scale city. When there is no open land left, when there are so many people walking on this earth that there is no space for them all. Will we all be crammed into environments like this, where you can't get away from people if you want to, where there is no silence, where there are no birds to hear. Sounds intriguing? Hopeless? Yeah....

But then I go to the post office and I get a letter from a friend that I haven't heard from in ages; I love nothing more than hearing from a friend, especially one that I think I have lost touch with. When I read through a few letters, esp. ones from good old friends, it fills me with the best feeling which satisfies all my insanity and stress. It is the sort of thing which makes me understand what the hell I'm doing, and sort of why I'm doing it all, what it is all about—these things which I really value. It's frustrating to not have the time to keep up with everything, and write letters the way I used to, it seems a lot of people are feeling that same thing. But they are still friends, and it doesn't matter if they make it to the punk show every week, or keep up with the fanzine. It's sort of gross to think of "growing up" what we never wanted to do, but it really does happen.

Oh and these dogs, what would I do with out them!! They each have their own distinct personalities just like humans—but they are loyal always love you. They are always there for you when you need some love picking up on your emotions - whether you be happy, sad, mad - they're right there by your side always wanting to make you feel better and be your friend! What more could we ask for?

RECYCLING TIPS

According to the Human Society a million animals are killed every day to high speed driving. This is reason enough to reconsider driving at excessive high speeds. It also is more gas efficient to drive the speed limit. (I like to drive fast too. -C)

- Compact Fluorescent bulbs are an efficient lighting source for within the home. Not only do they last longer than ordinary incandescent, but they also save energy. Ordinary incandescent are preferable to the "long life" bulbs..

- If you have problems with you cats eating your house plants, use crushed rue leaves over the plants which will keep the cat away without using any chemical repellents.

- If you must use soft soap in plastic pumps, then use the refillable plastic pouch to reduce the amount of garbage.

- Studies show that half or more of the acid rain falling in eastern location was sent aloft from industrial plants in the midwest. The Clean Air Act will help to provide relief, but it must be strictly enforced in more than just our own areas.

- Unbleached paper products are a preferable option. Chlorine bleaching of paper produces dioxin, which poses a cancer risk to people living downstream from pulp and paper mills.

- Take note of the numerical coding on recyclable plastic products — 1 for PET, 2 for HDPE etc. These need to be sorted separately in order for recycling to be efficient.

- Permanent markers have harmful solvents such as toluene, xylene and ethanol. Waterbased markers are preferable, and safer.

- Rather than using electricity — open curtains and let the sun shine into your home during the day, the brightest and least expensive source of light available.

- Recycle by using large economy packages. It saves money and cuts down on packaging per pound. However, don't buy packages so big that you waste the product inside.

- Some supermarkets now offer a 3¢ refund when you bring your own bags. Keep this in mind and 3¢ can add up and it saves everybody waste in the long run. Bags can be reused many times.

- Ocean dumping is starting to catch up with us, as fisherman report more of their catch marked by bizarre pocks and lesions. Algae blooms are being noted and numerous "dead zones" of water lack the dissolved oxygen necessary to sustain life. In order to preserve the life in oceans, we must stop polluting them.

- Stop eating meat. Not only is the meat industry cruel to animals, but it is a vast waste of other resources. If you are not already vegetarian - think about this deeply. Do you really need to eat that cow, or pig? No, you don't. Vegetarian diets not only put you more in tune to you bodies nutritional needs, but you help other animals and the environment.

- If you live in a house, consider planing short, dense evergreen shrubs around the foundation, to provide insulation from cold.

- When in a restaurant, if you don't intend to drink the water, tell the waiter not to serve it. Discourage the habit of refilling whether or not you want it. When possible use a cup at water fountains to avoid pouring most of it down the drain.

- Organize roadside walks to collect cans, bottles and other recyclable trash. Organize community pickup of recyclable materials.

- Establish a public education program. Encourage schools to organize their own recycling programs. Likewise any other business.

Review Your Habits & Lifestyle

- If you have a garden or yard, consider composting your yard and vegetable wastes.

- Look for organizations that will accept used paper, and organize a collection system in your school, or workplace.

- Try to use recycled printing and writing paper. Support local recycling efforts. Find out how much secondary (waste) fiber it contains; how much was derived from post-consumer waste paper and whether it was de-inked, bleached or dyed.

- Buy in bulk.

FANZINE REVIEWS

Chris' Reviews

The Fire Fly #17 ($5 for 6 month subscription to: RO Box 1077/Mission SD 57555). I really love this news-bullion publication adn I've missed it there last few months. Jane and Jon must be about the best parents—and I love to hear about their children and family—this time telling of a recent pesticide poison spraying at their home in S. Dakota as well as a birth in the family. It's good to see the values I hold and read and talk about etc. being taught to children. Seems to create some hope for the future! The Fire Fly #18 Always a pleasure to find this in my mailbox - this issue brings a good article on Malcolm X, telling briefly of his historical importance and the recognition of today. Also info on Leonard Peltier. Jane shares some of her viewpoints on breastfeeding and raising children, and a good amount of readers letters are printed. Excellent! I can only hope that more people fit it upon themselves to help provide alternative viewpoints which give insightful info in such a caring way.

Damn Nation #2 ($1 c/o Dave Schultz/ PO Box 118/ Conway SC 29526). Good reading here in this self titled Journal of Dissent. Philosophical and political issue articles on the recent upsurge of neo-nazi movement, individuality, Ayn Rand and objectivism existence theory, homophobia of our government leaders, natural rights historical issues of hemp, teen suicide and a NOTA on election ballots. The reading here is good, informative and well researched providing a better grasp for understanding.

Fuck For A Sure Kill ($1 or donation to Randall Phillip Broadcasting/ PO Box 2217/ Philly PA 19103). I really don't understand what it is that makes guys want to print photos of women in lingerie from out of a catalog along side of mutated and deformed people and sexual acts. I've never really understood this mentality and I still think it makes for some lame looking.

Adversity ($1-2 ? to PO Box 1751/ Torrington CT 06790). Excellent zine here of the anarcho-peace-punk genre focusing mostly of music and bands - al of which are good and atotally fall into my line of taste. Interviews w/ Drop Dead, Subvert, No Security, Oi Polloi & Misery. Also a few scene reports and a bunch of reviews. If this came out more often and more regular it would be even better, and provide an excellent source for support of this seemingly dying scene. But even on this irregular delayed basis - it is well worth it esp. if these bands are your thing.

Warfare #1 (Dec/Jan) ($2ppd Po Box 43/ Indiana PA 15701). Good first issue from the punks in Indiana PA, near Pittsburgh, covering a lot of that scene w/ fun interviews w/ Aus Rotten (which I think is a lot better if you know them), Submachine, Rigburn and ten feet TALL. In addition there is a good article on squatting, info on animal rights and some photos. I have an incredible soft spot for Pittsburgh and absolutely love to see something productive like this pushing the scene. It's also so refreshing to encounter this sort of enthusiastic energy. Write to 'em!

Massive Love #1 ($2 to Resistance Prod./ PO Box 426/ 8026 Zurich Switzerland). After giving birth, Lara has decided to do a zine focusing on punk parents - as a way to share info and ideas and help to provide a network and support group for alternative parenting. In this first issue this together. Short & sweet.

Life? #1 (Don't trade 11767 South Dixie Hwy #114/ Miami FL 22156). Pretty good one here with various writings about working day to day shit jobs—being an employee and attempting to overthrow it all. Also a really good interview with Naked Aggression.

Hungry Girl Fanzine (1426 Grand Ave./ St. Paul MN 55105). With talk of the girl revolution—the main focus here is a lengthy Bikini Kill interview—which, though th mail and fairly old is really good and tell s a lot about Kathleen & her views. In addition to the girl stuff ther is also a good think on veganism.

Peace of Mind #5 ($2 PO Box 73/ Norwich NR1 2EB England). English anarchist material with a focus on the relations between gay politics & anarchist politics. Also class issues, pornography and censorship, single issue politics vs. a need for revolution plus merchandise and contact listings.

What's That Noise #2 ($3 Europe/ $4 world c/o Herschaft Alain, Au.V. Olivier 10A Bte 67/ 1070 Brussels/ Belgium) A bit fat issue and a commendable effort and compilation of a load of interviews of punk & hardcore bands from around the world filling up 80 pages! To name a few—Bambix, Moribund Youth, Inkisicad, Biohazard, Cirsis Society, Muycky Pup—and a lot more. Good interviews & a great into to many diverse bands.

Unclean #5 (3 stamps/trade & letter 3414 18th SF CA 94110). Good Intv. w/ John from Reality control zine, which gives a goo feelin gon coming into the e. Bay scene—supported further by stuff on the Berkely pigs and cop watch, a band report and an account of an anti-Columbus balk bloc, foodpots, Bopbud, Telegraph Ave. — which all give a feeling for further than just telling what was done, but adds more thought and questions to ponder. Also articles on rebellion and redevelopment in LA and Big Mountain Support Action—as well as a load of reviews of other publications, books & music all providing many valuable contacts!

After spending time in NYC, this issue tells tales of being here and there (SF) & I gotta tell ya, her observations are so great that it makes me want to go to NYC and I'm already here. She picked up on a good vibe of this place - one of adventure and exploration on a bike (definitely a key thing for her) and accumulated some good resources and info and had a great time. She calls ABC a revolution, and I guess maybe it is. I guess w/ a new perspective on the usual things here, while it all looks different and it's actually inspiring to see her interpretation of this place. Everything from travel stories, where to go on your bike, how to hotwire electricity and generally have a good old time. Get this one or you are missing out.

Liberate The Obsessed #8 (Dec) ($1ppd LTO POB 1916/ Rapid City SD 577-0-1916). I always look forward to this one—full of Craigs ramblings about the system and the revolution—whether it's here & when it may come. With thoughts on education (in favor of self education), a fiction piece representative of our societies brainwashing—as well as additional writing by contributors. Thought is always good and it's good to see people putting their brains to work and showing the ideas.

Current Bullshit (SASE to 89-58 215th Place/ Queens Village NY 11427). For those of you who remember Bullshit Monthly, you'll understand or recognize the style which this has — Mike is back with one pagers of his written thoughts. What is different from BM is that this has a much more personal feel - rather than gossip or band info this is more about things he is thinking about and ideas that he has, sort of an insight into Mike's head. In the 2 issues I have there is a lot of look at Europe and how it compares and relates the here. All in all, a good read and interesting.

Drunk Punx newsletter (SASE PO Box 91503/ roseland Plaza Postal Outlet/ Burlington Ont./ L7R 4L6 Canada). this seem to be monthly, and somewhat of a guide for beer enthusiasts - with mix o the month drinks (not necessarily beer), as well as beer news (ie. what's up with breweries etc.) and a little info thing on what is happening in the area as well as a couple highlights of bands to check out. Short and sweet and definitely worth a stamp to check out, esp. for drunk punx. ha.

Jabiru Tribe #6 (PO Box 3648/ Corpus Christi TX 78463-3648). This is sort of a weird paper — I kind of really like the idea, this is a tabloid newspaper style (1 pager), with a variety of stuff sort of thrown together. I think that this is pretty much open to anything, but it doesn't seem to really have a direction figured out yet. Mostly seems to be collections of things which are sent to them. Worth contacting.

Living Free #74 ($1.50/ $9 for 6 issues/ Jim Stumm box 29, Hiller Branch/ Buffalo NY 14223). This is a good monthly newsletter which focus' on issues of freedom, through book reviews, cops & asset seizures and our rights, building your own dugout home, Free America Institute education info. Good contacts and info. Living Free #75 Always good info - this issues: Libertarian Party election and vote fraud, International squatters network, Organic gardening book review, avoiding taxes.

Anarchy In London #10 (Nov.) (56a Info Shop/ 56 Crampton St/ London SE17 UK). I just got ahold of this 1 page listing of excellent contacts with in London of distributors, books shops, contacts for squatting, cafes and spaces. This has some great info and could be incredibly useful, if you are already in London or England, want to go there, or just want to make some contacts!!! I would send a IRC or write a nice letter to 'em.

Internal Conflict #3/#4 ($3ppd each to PO Box 51465/ Raedene 2124/ Johannesburg/ South Africa.) I haven't gotten to read through these properly, but I did want to get this mention in before this goes to the printer. This is a great politically slanted informative zine that I really like. They have a lot of other stuff distributed and are a great contact, well worth writing to!

Free Society Vol 1 #4 (Fall) ($1 PO Box 7293/ Mpls. MN 55407). This is another one that I haven't yet gotten to read through, yet deserves a mention anyway, esp. since this is already getting slightly old. From the Youth Greens in Mpls - this zine has many lengthy articles which include a speech by Winona La Duke, a recount of the Green Gathering of '92, listing of literature of the native resistance movement, Dine struggle for autonomy, discussion of biotechnology, letters and contacts. Also worth noting is that they have an excellent listing of literature reprints available for copying costs in such a caring way.

Damn Nation #2 ($1 c/o Dave Schultz/ PO Box 118/ Conway SC 29526). Good reading here in this self titled Journal of Dissent. Philosophical and political issue articles on the recent upsurge of neo-nazi movement, individuality, Ayn Rand and objectivism existence theory, homophobia of our government leaders, natural rights historical issues of hemp, teen suicide and a NOTA on election ballots. The reading here is good, informative and well researched providing a better grasp for understanding.

Fuck For A Sure Kill ($1 or donation to Randall Phillip Broadcasting/ PO Box 2217/ Philly PA 19103). I really don't understand what it is that makes guys want to print photos of women in lingerie from out of a catalog along side of mutated and deformed people and sexual acts. I've never really understood this mentality and I still think it makes for some lame looking.

Adversity ($1-2 ? to PO Box 1751/ Torrington CT 06790). Excellent zine here of the anarcho-peace-punk genre focusing mostly of music and bands - all of which are good and atotally fall into my line of taste. Interviews w/ Drop Dead, Subvert, No Security, Oi Polloi & Misery. Also a few scene reports and a bunch of reviews. If this came out more often and more regular it would be even better, and provide an excellent source for support of this seemingly dying scene. But even on this irregular delayed basis - it is well worth it esp. if these bands are your thing.

Warfare #1 (Dec/Jan) ($2ppd Po Box 43/ Indiana PA 15701). Good first issue from the punks in Indiana PA, near Pittsburgh, covering a lot of that scene w/ fun interviews w/ Aus Rotten (which I think is a lot better if you know them), Submachine, Riggburn and ten feet TALL. In addition there is a good article on squatting, info on animal rights and some photos. I have an incredible soft spot for Pittsburgh and absolutely love to see something productive like this pushing the scene. It's also so refreshing to encounter this sort of enthusiastic energy. Write to 'em! Massive Love #1 ($2 to Resistance Prod./ PO Box 426/ 8026 Zurich Switzerland). After giving birth, Lara has decided to do a zine focusing on punk parents - as a way to share info and ideas and help to provide a network and support group for alternative parenting. In this first issue there is a lot of info on nutrition and vegan diets and vitamins (for parents & children). Also info through interviews on home birth and various other opinions. I hope to see this one continue!

Amnesty #2 (75¢ PO Box 25144/ WDC 10007-8144). This is a good zine that really supports animal rights. While not needing to invest a lot of time reading, there is good info on the connection of animal liberation and feminists/women's liberation, AIDS & animal research, a good list of 800 #'s to call and hassle about animal cruelty and abuse, car kit for road hurt animals, ALF and vegan recipes.

Zenith #1 (700 Hearn Apt. 115/ Austin TX 78703). Some reviews, poetry, definitions of words to expand our brain, a thing on our selfishness of staying safely at home and a few misc. clippings. Needs more substance.

Quadog #1 ($1 711 E. 77th St. #202/ Richfield MN 55423). I really like this name. Good interview w/ one of my favorite bands - Naked Aggression. Also Inspector 12. Thoughts from Jason, the editor bring of the girl revolution—the main focus here is a lengthy Bikini Kill interview—which, though the mail and fairly old is really good and tells a lot about Kathleen & her views. In addition to the girl stuff there is also a good think on veganism.

Peace of Mind #6 ($2 PO Box 73/ Norwich/ NR1 2EB England). English anarchist material with a focus on the relations between gay politics & anarchist politics. Also class issues, pornography and censorship, single issue politics vs. a need for revolution plus merchandise and contact listings.

What's That Noise #2 ($3 Europe/ $4 world c/o Herschaft Alain, Au.V. Olivier 10A Bte 67/ 1070 Brussels/ Belgium) A bit fat issue and a commendable effort and compilation of a load of interviews of punk & hardcore bands from around the world filling up 80 pages! To name a few—Bambix, Moribund Youth, Inkisicad, Biohazard, Cirsis Society, Mucky Pup—and a lot more. Good interviews & a great intro to many diverse bands.

Unclean #5 (3 stamps/trade & letter 3414 18th SF CA 94110). Good intro. w/ John from Reality control zine, which gives a good feeling going into the e. Bay scene—supported further by stuff on the Berkeley pigs and cop watch, a band report and an account of an anti-Columbus black bloc, food not bombs, Rosebud, Telegraph Ave. — which all gives a feeling for being there w/ honest enthusiasm and energy, which is great. Makes me really want to go back there. Very creative use of the Nausea letters to make their Unclean logo.

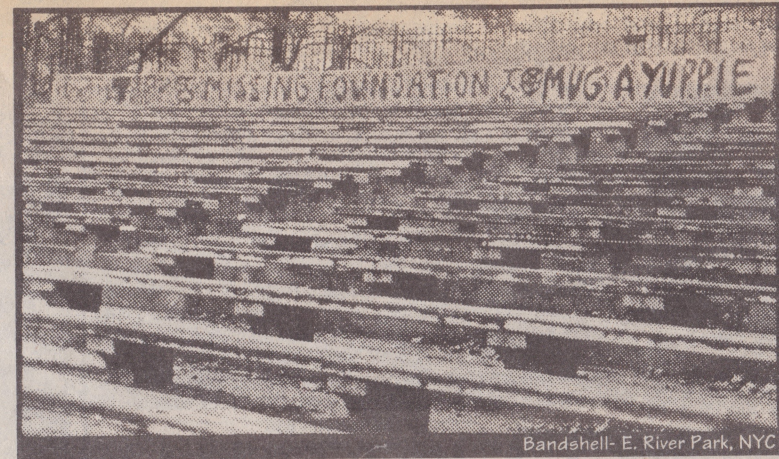

Notes in Response to a Disfunctional Society #1 (PO Box 14941/ Berkeley CA 94701). Small enthusiastic collection mostly of somewhat personal writings, one of which tells the story of sexual harassment while passed out. The most interesting thing is a reprint of an article on the value of tears (from Mothering Magazine).

Anti-Copyright-@narchy Art ($1.50ppd Po Box 666/ Oxford OH 45056). Really great idea - a collection of anarchist graphics (many of which are common—@ w/ broken guns; black flag w/ fist etc...) brought together in a cli-art format. This would be helpful for anyone interested in graphics for whatever reason. Looking for more stuff for future collections.

Mudflap ($1 & 2 stamps 666 Ill/ SF CA 94107). This is definitely my hit pack of the month—Greta has a rad thing going here and a great attitude!

Wind Chill Factor #8 ($1.50ppd to POB 81961/ Chicago IL 60681). This has got to be one of the more impressive revolutionary anarchist zines coming out today. They manage to pack a vast amount of info into the many pages with a strong perspective—through letters, info news, general anarchist theory to specifics of things happening around us & various actions—all of which make you ready to smash the state. Seriously—a great collection of information that'll take you awhile to sort through, I've been reading this on the subway all week. All I can do is tell 'em to keep it up and tell you to check this out!

Media Blitz #3 ($2 PO Box 20420/ Lon. Ter. St./ NYC 10011). As a high school student he has got an intelligent revolutionary point of view and interestingly enough has found very few "youth" in the AYF. He confronts television, an experience w/ art classes at Cooper Union a city art college, intro. w/ performance artist, a new clipping from a city HS which has gone to extremes to enforce gun control violence - which is shocking to me. Also reviews of books and zines. Well done.

Bandshell - E. River Park, NYC

Another Pair of Shoes #11 ($2ppd PO Box 300031/ Mpls MN 55403). This is a theme issue on atheism—against organized religion with several different articles an essays on evolution, contradictions in the bible, an intro. w/ a member of MN atheists and an info piece on Bertrand Russell a British philosopher. Also a few reviews and a bunch of drawings of shoes and send-ins on what shoes people wear. Consistently good. Send in a drawing of your shoes!

No Sanctuary #1 (Nov). ($2ppd to Resistance Prod. Box 426/ 8026 Zurich Switzerland). This issue recounts the past 12 in summation (a vol. of 13, backwards), with full rants of all the people & bands who do not fulfill the DIY ideals. I understand and agree, yet wonder sometimes if all the bitching and pointing of fingers isn't just a waste of time. Also the usual info, contacts, reviews, a Lithuania scene report. This is good, as always, and somewhat of a guide for beer enthusiasts - with mix & the month drinks (not necessarily beer), as well as beer news (ie. what's up with breweries etc.) and a little info thing on what is happening in the area as well as a couple highlights of bands to check out. Alarm #5 ($1.50 quarterly/ PO Box 804/ Burlington VT 05402). This is a journal of the NE Earth First group working at bringing together info on activities related to EF and environmental actions. Much of this is recounts of various actions taking place or upcoming ones. They are begging for support in order to continue publishing, and this is a good forum for info, defiantly worth supporting. Topics include: Biotechnology, Tasmania, tourist railroad in White Mountains, hydro tech invasion of native lands, dioxin increase in Maine, Lynx in NY, hunting bears in PA. Also a resource directory, letters and a general action agenda for the region. Excellent source. Alarm #4. With the same overall format, this issue is from the fall of last year. Topics include: an emphasis on 500 Years of Resistance and indigenous peoples, voting and government's involvement with environmental issues, ozone demo, Albion uprising - redwood forests by Judi Bari, EFL political prisoners, resources and contacts and much more - all aimed at a direct action stance.

This is good, as always, yet I always seem to get fired up when I read this.

No Sanctuary #13 (Jan) They're going on round 2 of the countdown of issue snow, due to massive success... Bringing us yet more DIY punkness here—an intv. w/ Turkey's Moribund Youth (now called Turmoil), a reprinting of Britains Counter Information, info on Oregon's recent attempt at an amendment of take away homosexual rights. Plus reviews, news and a few rants on punk trends. Always a good read.

The Connection #186 ($20 yr. sub. to Erwin S. Strass Box 3343/Fairfax VA 22028). This is a really sort of weird thing which I really don't understand. For the most part this seems to be a communication between a lot of people, commenting on various topics. While there is something that really draws me to this and interests me I was not able to pick up on much of it at all.

Greener Pastures Gasette Vol V #3 (Fall) (Sub $22 PO Box 2190/Henderson NV 89009-2190). This quarterly newsletter provides info to people who are trying to get out the cities to more healthy and safe places. Through info on housing alternatives, statistics on healthy places to live, various news info as well as rural property for sale, this provides a good service along w/ workshops for members. I guess being a "member" will make the $22 a year more beneficial as just 4 issue sof this 6 pages is pretty steep.

Madworld Survival Guide #8 ($2ppd to MSG Press/ Box 791377/ New Orleans LA 76179-1377). Absolutely excellent!!! This is a great zine w/ lots of push & inspiration to combat the mad world. With an article on higher education self taught, a recout of the Houston @ gathering - which goes to mention a mention, esp. since this is already getting slightly old. From the Youth Greens in Mpls - this zine has many lengthy articles which include a speech by Winona La Duke, a recout of the Green Gathering of '92, listing of literature of the native resistance movement, Dine struggle for autonomy, discussion of biotechnology, letters and contacts. The Progressive ($3 409 E. Main St./ Madison WI 53703). This magazine covers world news and events and politics from a progressive/ alternative viewpoint. The style reminds me a lot of the Utne Reader. With political emphasis such as commentary on Somalia, reactions to the past election, a cover story on free trade, Vietnam and POW/MIA's, last words from Petra Kelly. I haven't gotten to read it all, but I really like the viewpoints expressed and the overall attitude. It's really good to come across a different viewpoint for commentary on news of the world.

Tom's Reviews

Paranoid #1 (75¢ to Chickenhead & WRHU radio/ 1000 Fulton Ave./ Hempstead NY 11550). One of 2 zines form LI. Local band gossip,, live band interviews, rekid reviews & other misc. from the most dangerous zine in the world. (There are death threats to the editors for absolutely no reason stemming from this pretty innocuous zine, but we're talking about LI here.)

Excommunication #1 ($1ppd c/o GCS/ 2702 Sipp ave./ Medford NY 11763-2041). The other LI punk/HC zine. Intv. w/ Neglect (my favorite), Demise (from WI), tips on clothing donations & a good 1 page rant on the LI scene & why it sucks. Plus personal thoughts on the world we live in. Record reviews too.

Agitation #5 (1 stamp c/o Kelly 67-41 185th st./ Queens NY 11365). A one pager "Queens Zine", similar to the other one pagers we have floating around this scene. One record review (Bugout Society), one book review (England's Dreaming), a couple of show reviews. I can't say to much more w/out reprinting the whole thing verbatim.

'MAKING POETRY A THREAT AGAIN'

Filmdumb #1 ($1 ppd c/o Antony Terres/ 3417 Lanat La. #22/ Orlando FL 32826). This concentrates on film reviews & throws in something on personal bankruptcy, why you should drink water. Can I say any more? (He's from Florida?)

Arrow of Truth #3 (a few stamps to 33 Naomi Ave./ Lindsville PA 17538). Here's one of these zines that is "informative" in the social sense - AIDS facts, LSD facts, Pot facts, It's more of a newsletter about the band Anti Cupid & the members likes & dislikes. Oh & a short ditty (I hate that word) on cunninglingus too.

Vile Vol II #2 (a few stamps c/o Greensburgh-Abraria/ 540 W. Elsemore/ San Antonio TX 78212). This ish has zine interviews & a statement why he/she still does Vile. A year in review thing; Job tells us about his trip to Truckstop World & his lover; an Amerika quiz to boot!

Freezerburn #2 ($1 to 215 Willoughby Ave. apt 715/ Bklyn NY 11205). This is their 1st ish in 3 years, with a Gainsville FL scene report, intv. w/ Pegboy, Spoke, Peter Bogge the cartoonist (as opposed to Peter Bogge the plumber). My favorites are the article son shit jobs - every punks' had em, if no the only job we ever had; & pranks, (are there any zines devoted to pranks) (Scam zine -C); record & book reviews & cheezy 70s movie & television reviews like the boy in the plastic bubble.

Angry Thoreau #4 ($2ppd PO Box 2246/ Anaslme CA 92814). Usual AT stuff, so you won't be disappointed. Lots of record, gig, video, zine, book & catalog reviews; a letters section; how to file a police complaint report in California cities; a Final conflict review too.

Bavou La Rosa #40 ($2.50ppd c/o The Heart of Angililla/ PO Box 5464/ Tacoma WA 98415-0464). A heavy newspaper for & about the true blue-collar/working class people. This is the 1st time I've seen this paper, so to me it kinda comes off as a disjointed "multi political" slant. Let me explain more: heavily working class, environmentally concerned, anarchist set of ideals simply because it's the closest thing to what they believe in.

Azure Plume #3 ($2 ish/ $8 yr. - PO Box 535/ Ceredo WV 25507). Poetry, reviews about this zine, short stories (more like anecdotes, or something like that) a "help Rodney King find Zsa Zsa Gabor's house" maze & an intv. w/ Steph/Joel Epanouri who is taking a view of silence. It also has a pink cover.

Reviews by John F.

Honscotch #2 (1420 Riverdale Dr./ Appleton WI 54914). A pretty well done photocopied project featuring coverage of MOonsula and several smaller acts. Good copying (though the photos kind of suffer) interesting fiction and personal view type things. This mag is from Wisconsin and you can really tell. Good.

Tabula Rasa #1 (PO Box 6/ Ancramdale NY 12503). An interesting idea for a zine, this guy had people write accounts of childhood experiences which shaped their personality. Kind of a diverting read, at least the first time through, but this guy's got to hook up with a better copying machine. Cereal reviews are also kind of an interesting touch.

Tidbit Fanzine #3 (PO Box 5846/ Huntington Beach CA 92615-5846). A really well done zine with tons of picture sof straight-edge bands clenchnign fists and looking earnest. I think the 411 pin-up center-fold says a lot about this mag. Coverage of Ice, Outspoken, Inceburn, plus photos of a lot of others. The layouts are good, the copying is good, worth $2 I think.

Trouble In River City #3 ($1 PO Box 5202/ St. Louis MO 63139). A treat for those of you who were impressed by the goofiness of the Profane Existence punks and guns feature, quite an amusing take off. Kind of a lefty type of thing, but a little better though out than those zany guys over at PE, reasonably interesting interviews w/ Schlong, Jawbreaker, and Chumba(disco power)-wamba. Put together well, it's defiantly worth a buck.

Unbent #122 ($1 1541 Freeport Rd./ Natrona Heights, PA 15065). Ok, 1 dollar is a little steep for these little fold over things, but you've got to hand it to these dudes for putting out a decently imaginative little zine out there in the boonies. Definitely the class of this item is the staff tables documenting the personal preferences of the guys who put this out. Personal opinions on this and that plus interviews that were a little skimpy (but then again how many punk rock bands actually get out to Natrona Hgts?). On the whole it's pretty good.

Miscreance #2 (50$/ UCSC/ College Eight #178/ 200 Heller Dr./ Santa Cruz, CA 95064). For a guy who lost basically all of his political idealism about ten years ago, this mag, which says on the first page that it's dedicated to "anti-establishment sub-culture" is a little hard to take. On the other hand it's pretty well done and leftiness has not completely destroyed their sense of humor. These college kids sure have thing for long winded political essays though. It's worth the cover price if @ is your thing.

10-15 Civil Disturbance #7 (75$/ c/o Dan/South 70 West 17374 Muskego Dr./ Muskego WI 53150). More literature from small town @types. I don't want to discourage this sort of thing (even though anarchism is really not my bag), but after 10 years of reading exactly the same anarchist sentiments in 10,000 fanzines I'm really starting to wonder whether this format may have played itself out. Oh well, it was just a thought, now if one of you young 'uns will get me my cane and my shawl, I think I'll be going back to the old folks home now. Young? Pissed off? This may be the answer.

Crossroads #1 (free/ Touch of Love Ministries c/o Randy Bates HCR#2/ Box 427/ Tucson AZ 85735). Chris giving me this to review must mean she's got a sense of humor. This is straight ahead JESUSFUCKINGCHRIST in your face with tales of personal salvation and long blatherings about how these people are working to bring the light of Jesus into everybody's life. The best part of the whole thing is the article entitled "Taking a stand for christ", do you really need me to explain what it was about to you. On the other hand, these guys gotta have some sort of huevos sending something like this to a punk rock fanzine for review, but I guess that's what having a personal relationship with Jesus Christ is all about. At least it's free.

Feedback #3 ($1 PO Box 2/ Gibbon NE 68840). Having gone to high school in Walla Walla, Washington, I understand what it's like to be stuck in a small town with nothing to do. That's why I have a certain sympathy for this zine of thoughts about the difficulties of school and poetry. The cartoon of some muscle bound guy throttling Bart Simpson was a definite highlight.

Fuck You #3 (Free PO Box 175/ Colmar PA 18915) Three pages of not to highly inspired drivel from some guy named Chuck U Farley and the lyrics to "Salad Days" by Minor Threat. Does Matt Gard really know this guy, this is Isolation #10 ($3ppd PO Box 9458 Fresno CA 9372-9458). A goth zine on glossy paper. I thought that goth was supposed to be depressing. Isolation has an interview w/ Alien Sex Fiend and other pale faced suicide death ninjas. Nicely put together, but not my cup of blood. Hail satan and pass the razor blades.

Dumpster Dive #5 ($1-2 ??? Osbourne Ave/Norwalk CT 06855). Good reading. Interviews with Bad Religion, Bugout Society, Die Kruezen and Johnny Ramone. Not really my fave bands, but you know. Also this issue is dedicated to one of the editors, Jack Etes who died from HIV complications. The into is extremely sad. I think that this is a worth read.

Trooth Dekay #1 (8500 Widener Ave./ Philadelphia PA 19118). This is a cool zine for a first issue. Kinda sloppy but interesting. TD has your usual rants, reviews, and photos. No price listed.

Vile Vol. 2 #1 (c/o Abraria 939 Ayers/ Corpus Christi TX 78404). Nothing too innovative here, but it's good reading. I like this because it isn't only focused on punk music. Check it out. No price listed.

Mongolian Bikers From North Africa Korea (13570 St. Johns Ln. #102-228/ Ellicott City MN 21421). I think that this sucks and it isn't worth the paper that it's printed on. Full size and only printed on one side. If you also rate zine's by inches of an erection, then this is for you.

Franks Depression Poetry (PO Box 292/ Boston MA 02101). Duhhh!!!! Two bucks for 4 pages of bad poetry on eight pieces of paper. If you are a poetry fan, try it. This sure ain't Kerouac.

You should get this, lots of stuff to read. PG is sensitive, educational, humorous and intelligent. I love the 700 club attacks placed throughout this issue.

East Coast Exchange Vol. 1 #4 '93 ($1.50ppd ECE/ 184 Lexington Ave Apt. 7B/ NY NY 10016-6841). Nonprofit underground zine with contributors up and down the whole east coast. Show reviews, cool interviews w/ Helmet, Chris Thompson, Agonistic front, Mighty Mighty Bosstones, The cows and grey. Thought provokign commentary and poems including an e4ssay that tried to decipher the ocmibnation of hare krsna and hardcore. 3 pages of records reviews and comics. excellent layout and content. This one's a must. (ECE is also looking for underground bands for a documentary film.)

Curious Goods #7 ($3 3754 Almond Dr./ Oxnard CA 93030) This zine if fat. 95 pages of well written reviews of demos, records VHS videos (incl. a beastie boys one) and shows. There are also 20 bands interviewed including Pantera, the Accused, Body count, blitzspeer, Jugheads rEvenge and Skrew. Highlights: Nymphs interview, very funny Gwar interview and an L7 interview where Suzi Gardner resp9onds to MRR's "Fuck you" for signing with a major label. Organized, professional layout. Ir eally dug a section called "the demo pile" which reviews over 100 demos in depth.

Queer Tales (AK Distribution/ 3 Balmoral Place/ Stirling/ scotland/ FK8 2RD/ UK) This 26 page book is entirely comprised of short stories about homosexual encounters. everything from ice cream to spanking is written about. Heavy typos. I believe it costs 80p, but you better write and inquire about that.

Life is Hip #6 (C/o Cory/ 1413 Park Lane/ Kilgore TX 75662-6021). After reading this didactic zine I almost wanted to renounce all my material possessions. This zine deals souly- (hee-hee) with Christianity. Zine reviews, articles, record reviews and show reviews, but i've never heard of anyof the bands they mention. Anyone who feels "God is the answer" will enjoy this one.

Rise #1 ($1/stamps/or trade to Robert Sing/ PO Box 13934/ Savannah, GA 31416). Editor used to do a zine titled Underworld. Short, unpretentious booklet. Fanzine & record reviews. There's an Bogge the plumber. My favorites are the article on shit boys - every punks' had em, if no the only job we ever had, & pranks (are there any zines devoted to pranks) (Scam zine -C); record & book reviews & cheezy 70s movie & television reviews like the boy in the plastic bubble. Angry Thoreau #4 ($2ppd PO Box 2246/ Anaslime CA 92814). Usual AT stuff, so you won't be disappointed. Lots of record, gig, video, zine, book & catalog reviews; a letters section; how to file a police complaint report in California cities; a Final conflict review too. Bavou La Rose #40 ($2.50ppd c/o The Heart of Angillilo/ PO Box 5464/ Tacoma WA 98415-0464). A heavy newspaper for & about the true blue-collar/working class people. This is the 1st time I've seen this paper, so to me it kinda comes off as a disappointed "multi political" slant. Let me explain more: heavily working class, environmentally concerned, anarchist set of ideals simply because it's the closest thing to what they believe in.

Azure Plume #3 ($2 ish/ $8 yr. - PO Box 535/ Ceredo WV 25507). Poetry, reviews about other zines, short stories (more like anecdotes, or something like that) a "help Rodney King find Zsa Zsa Gabor's house" maze & an intv. w/ Steph/Joel Epanouri who is taking a view of silence. It also has a pink cover.

Reviews by John F.

Hopscotch #2 (1420 Riverdale Dr./ Appleton WI 54914). A pretty well done photocopied project featuring coverage of MOnsula and several smaller acts. Good copying (though the photos kind of suffer) interesting fiction and personal view type things. This mag is from Wisconsin and you can really tell. Good.

Tabula Rasa #1 (PO Box 6/ Ancramdale NY 12503). An interesting idea for a zine, this guy had people write accounts of childhood experiences which shaped their personality. Kind of a diverting read, at least the first time through, but this guy's got to hook up with a better copying machine. Cereal reviews are also kind of an interesting touch.

Tidbit Fanzine #3 (PO Box 5846/ Huntington Beach CA 92615-5846). A really well done zine with tons of picture sof straight-edge bands clenching fists and looking earnest. I think the 411 pin-up center-fold says a lot about this mag. Coverage of Ice, Outspoken, Inceburn, plus photos of a lot of others. The layouts are good, the copying is good, worth $2 I think.

There's a little skimpy (but then again how many punk rock bands actually get out to Natrona Hgts?). On the whole it's pretty good.

Miscreance #2 (50$/ UCSC/ College Eight #178/ 200 Heller Dr./ Santa Cruz, CA 95064). For a guy who lost basically all of his political idealism about ten years ago, this mag, which says on the first page that it's dedicated to "anti-establishment sub-culture" is a little hard to take. On the other hand it's pretty well done and leftiness has not completely destroyed their sense of humor. These college kids sure have thing for long winded political essays though. It's worth the cover price if @ is your thing.

10-15 Civil Disturbance #7 (75$/ c/o Dan/South 70 West 17374 Muskego Dr./ Muskego WI 53150). More literature from small town @ types. I don't want to discourage this sort of thing (even though anarchism is really not my bag.), but after 10 years of reading exactly the same anarchist sentiments in 10,000 fanzines I'm really starting to wonder whether this format may have played itself out. Oh well, it was just a thought, now if one of you young 'uns will get me my cane and my shawl, I think I'll be going back to the old folks home now. Young? Pissed off? This may be the answer.

Scum #1 ($2/ PO Box 7051/ Jupiter FL 33468). I guess I'll always have a soft spot in my heart (or was that my head) for this sort of poorly designed, super cheap, anarcho-punk, interview by mail sort of fanzine. If you're older than 15 this will probably go a little underneath you, but for the super newjack set this will be just the thing. Excellent with the exception of some dodgy ideas (like considering anti-racism a "political" issue instead of just common sense), but still worth a look. (Dan)

Salon: A Journal of Aesthetics #16 ($5 305W. Magnolia Ste. 386/Ft. Collins CO 80521). Each issue of this thick mag. is about a different topic, this one is about sex. Lots of interesting views on the subject and hilarious cartoons. The product is good and about 60 pages worth, but $5 is a little steep I'd say.

Beyond The Wall Of Injustice #2 (PO Box 6188/Fullerton CA 92634). Hackneyed or not, I think that if everyone in America read this zine every week things would probably be lots better. I have a real soft spot in my heart for this type of serious anarcho-political approach to punk rock. This one is in a newspaper format and has equal coverage of music and anarchist political happenings in So. Cal. RECORD REVIEWS

Chris' Reviews

Excrement of War demo tape

gee, what can I say, I love this stuff!! This is a new studi recorded demo with 12 awesome tunes of heavy Discharge influenced punk stuff — ya gotta love it! In my book, at least this is good and therefore a well needed must have sort of thing. ($5ppd to 5 saxwily House/ Kimpton House/ Druids Heath/Birmingham B14 5TE/ England)

In/ Humanity demo tape

Moshin' hardcore form somewhere in South Carolina. The recording on this isn't so good, but I guess they just want to re-record and release this as an ep. The improved recording will help. I can imagine that where they are they're probably a really cool local band & there is a potential here.

Warhead "Cry of Truth" 7"

Excellentn superfast brutally manic punkcore that has Japan written all over it - without even knowing they are from Japan, which they are. Relatively short lyrics that I can't understand, but this totally rips and stays powerful to the end. (Amok Rec. c/o Holger Schmidt/ Droste-Hol Shoff Str. 42/ W-4709 Berkamen Gemany)

Submachine/ Filth split "This is why we are the drunks" 7"

It's been a long while since I've heard anything from Filth, so I was sort of thinking yet another good punk band gone bit to my pleasant surprise they have resurfaced and paired up with my buddies Submachine from Pittsburgh, definitely a band deserving a bit of attention! Filth is Filth. 2 songs here of Filthpunk - noisey punk with the unmistakable brutal vocals. Submachine have 2 equally good songs (w/ a bonus beer song) bringing a bit more of-ish pogo beat and councy-ness mixed with a

Sarcasm "The Lowest Form of Wit" 7"

I've heard raves about this band usually at Disrupt shows, and now I can see why. With a good steady punk beat add in the artificial extra-deep growled grindcore vocals and you've sort of got the idea. While I'm pretty bored with the grindcore thing, and really turned off by all the deep gutted vocal stuff - the music is good and they're doing their thing well. Good recording, packaging etc. Probably excellent live! ($3ppd to Tribal War PO Box 20012/ Temp. Sq. Stn./ NY NY 10009)

Hated "Hate Yourself Free" tape

With a good punk foundation this picks up on the aaargh-blurrg deep heavy, super fast short blast beat songs. Aide 2 is much more tribal, with a lot of drums and a good beat, with sort of a groan and growl over top. The language barrier makes it even harder to distinguish sounds from words. Interesting, but also pretty short. (POB 426/ 8026 Zurich/ Switzerland)

Aus Rotten - live tape

These guys happen to be about my most favorite band right now, also from Pittsburgh - a bonus in my eyes, reminding me of home. this tape has 2 live shows form within the vininity of Pittsburgh PA, and the first time I've gotten to hear Eric on vocals. They're still punk as fuck and damn good. With the live set we get the good pittsburgh style cover songs — The Business, Black Flag, Broken Bones, Discharge, the Blitz — Is that great or what? this is a good quality live recording and come with a booklet w/ some photos. Check it out! I can't rave about em enough. Look for a new recording soon, oh, and the demo is still available. (For this tape write to: Warfare/ PO Box 43/ Indiana PA 15701, to contact AR write PO Box 71287/ Pittsburgh PA 15213.)

Dogma Mundista "Destiny Or Greed" LP

Awesome! Supergoodpunk rock—Igot turned on to these guys when I was in California 2 years ago, and now it's cool to see an LP, just when I thought LA was dying. Fast upbeat PUNK rock, with a slight heaviness to the guitar to add power and keep it all pogoing along at a quick pace. Great vocals; a few songs in Spanish, the rest in English. (You could write to them in Espanol). One of the best LP's of pure punkness in a long while! (DM PO Box 943/ Reseda CA 91335)

Bloody Mess & The Scabs "Empty" 7"

Heavy, brutal in an obnoxious sort of punk way with a good beat, sort of pogoey ye t he vocals add an abrasive harshness while this isn't really something that I'll be really into, there is a rather interesting quality to this, that makes it listenable and even sort of funny. (Black & Blue Rec. Suite 152/ 4000 Putnam Pike/ Smithfield RI 02917).

The Circus Tents "Hard Up" ep

Good old style raging hardcore with energy, power & harshly screamed vocals basically saying fuck-you to a lot of society. Nothing incredible, new or prodound, but that doesn't make this any less worth a listen as a good hardcore band. ($3ppd to Insurrection Red. PO Box 4314/ Santa Rosa CA 95402)

Scapegrace "Plead" 7"

Wow, this is pretty cool. With a solid hardcore background they add on top a variety of interesting changes and sounds, eerie guitar, fast and slow, all adding to the complete screaming insanity of the vocals—it becomes rather mesmerizing and intriguing. ($3ppd c/o Framework/ PO Box 216/ Port Jefferson Stn. NY 11776)

Fuwah Llamas 7"

This starts out sort of good - with Stiff Little Fingers-ish riffs and a more polished new waveish Simple Minds type of vocals. Record didn't come with a sleeve, so it doesn't say much; it's listenable, but not earthshattering. (BMRG PO Box 4110/ Star City WV 26505)

MTA "Semtex Blues" 7"

From Brighton, England this is a late punk styled ahrdcore which mixed up a Vicious Circle style vocals with a fast chugga chugga of Discharge w/ a NY hard-core edge. I prefer the chugga stuff, but this is pretty cool. The Wurst should hook up with this band! (Payback Rec./ PO Box 857/ Brighton BN2 4YN UK)

Ted Franco CD

Ted is the coolest! From yonkers this guy is the rockenist—he even came and played a show at ABC which I'm sad to say I missed due to this massive storm which flooded me in. Ted, please come back. So this CD has oly 2 songs, which is sort of a shame because the 2 songs, about shooting your boss and being tortured and abused have already become an old favorite. Picture the voice that would ultimately sing 'dem bones, and you ahev him singing about killing his boss. It's the best! Everyone can only wish that their dad is this cool! (Nawpost Rec. PO Box 245/ Buchanan, NY 10511)

Batteries Included - comp. tape

This is the newest tape from Destroy Tapes in London, and as to be expected this is a good sampling of PUNK rock. With an assortment of UK punk—ranging from the UK Subs, Oi Polloi, (((to soem less well known but also good bands like MDM, TWERP, Rubber Whips, Goheads. 90 minutes of groovy tunes here reminiscent of a punk and disorderly

Dystopia - tape

Like a thundering assault this is heavy!! The good loud recording really break the barriers of racism. Autonomy are a good peace-punk band with a heavy animal rights message. Mixed throughout this live set are clips from demos and conversation interviews on animal rights. Whiel this is all a good thing, I really do not like rap, and therefore Frantic Puzzle goes by me without any interest. (Alternative Tape Library/ PO Box 6188/ Fullerton CA 92634)

NOFX "White Trash, Two Heebz & A Bean" CD

This new release seems better to me than some of the last releases. It screams of California. With a cross of upbeat poppiness mixed with some traditional r'n'r style guitar, harmonic melodies full of fun heartedness — it is all rather catchy. With a bit of reggae and odd bits thrown in for a full soup. (Epitaph).

The Offspring "Ignition" CD

This is my surprise of the month! I nearly mistakenly wrote this off as some more emo-pop shit, which would have been a huge mistake and loss - because I really love this! In fact I can't remember the last time I was so taken by a band, esp. one that I didn't even expect that I would like! This is definatly harmonious and catchy with an upbeat and drawing sing-song vocal style. And I find myself dancing around the room with my dog listening to this one, and then singing the songs in my head while I ride the subway. And the more I listen to this, the more I hear these little reminders of the HC/punk from Calif. that I used to love so much years ago, so maybe it's not so surprising that I like this so much. Well anyway, I really dig this and admit that it is a surprise to

Corrosão Caotica 7"

For Portugal here is some Spanish sung punk. This is ok, but doesn't really do anything ground-breaking. Average bouncy hardcore-punk that is catchy but not so memorable. (Slime Rec. Apartado 1789/ 1017 Lisboa Codelz Portugal)

Dogma Mundista "Cloudy Gray Skies" 7"

This is the awesomest! Every note is right on and this just sucks me right in! To a relatively slow yet varying hard punk they've got a great sound! They've got a strong connection with the Spanish punk scene in Mexico - with 1 out of 3 song here in Spanish. These 3 songs are not on the LP and esp. the title song is great! Don't let these guys go unnoticed! I mean it!! (DM - PO Box 943/ Reseda CA 91335)

Dystopia - tape

Like a thundering assault this is heavy!! The good loud recording really helps boost this up to a quality as good as any of those popular grind-metal bands and in a way is even cooler. mixing up members from a lot of other defunct So. Cal bands such as Confrontation, Apocalypse & Mindrot. Even though I get really tired of a lot of this whole grind-core thing—they do it really well and this is definitely good. ($3ppd Life is Abuse PO Box 541/ El Toro CA 92630)

Senza Riserve Comp. LP

This is an Italian comp. put together to benefit Native American Indians with a massive booklet with info as well as info on bands. It's all excellent, but unfortunately in Italian. Kina, Infezione, Ulcera, Conte Zero, Contrasto, Panico, Waka Waka, DNE, CCC CNC NCN, Crime Gang Band & Officine Schwartz — over all really good — some folksy stuff as well as upbeat punk and Indian chants.

Ted Franco CD

Ted is the coolest! From yonkers this guy is the rockenist — he even came and played a show at ABC which I'm sad to say I missed due to this massive storm which flooded me in. Ted, please come back. So this CD has oiy 2 songs, which is sort of a shame because the 2 songs, about shooting your boss and being tortured and abused have already become an old favorite. Picture the voice that would ultimately sing 'dem bones, and you ahev him singing about killing his boss. It's the best! Everyone can only wish that their dad is this cool! (Nawpost Rec. PO Box 245/ Buchanan, NY 10511)

Batteries Included - comp. tape

This is the newest tape from Destroy Tapes in London, and as to be expected this is a good sampling of PUNK rock. With an assortment of UK punk—ranging from the UK Subs, Oi Polloi, (((to seem less well known but also good bands like MDM, TWERP, Rubber Whips, Goheads. 90 minutes of groovy tunes here reminiscent of a punk and disorderly record. ($5ppd c/o Dave Fergusson/ 34a Bodney Rd/ Hackney London E8 1AY England)

Medicine Man "This ones for you" demo tape

A manic sort of hardcore here with a lot of guitar craziness. Disjointed sort of insanity throughout, though the guitar leads are really to much for me; really long guitar emphasized insurmental things irk me. When they get dropped the rest is pretty cool fast hardcore.

Kina "Biko-Chicago" 7"

Besides the fact that this is a name I've heard a lot & thought I'd like this doesn't really interest me. 2 songs here on the poppy side. 'Biko' is extremely melo and harmonious, 'Chicago' is more upbeat — yet why are they singing about Chicago changing the world. 1/2 in English 1/2 in Italian. (Sis Rec. /X-Mist Rec./ Meisenveg 10./W. Germany)

Skink "Violence" 7"

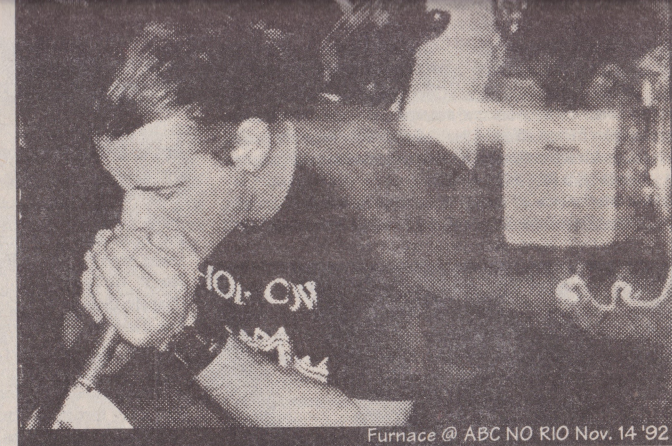

With a pounding semi-tribalish, semi-industrial mixed with grindcore touch (the hardcore-punk gone heavy w/ tinges of industrial style). This is quite good and I keep listening to it. Heavy Voi-Vodish-ness in the guitar and a tribal drum. Vocal style reminds me of OWP a bit. Definitely a good one here! Brutal cover of a dude getting his face smashed by a cop as his glasses fly off. (X-Mist Rec./ Meisenveg 10./W. Germany)

UltraHead "Cement Truck" CD

Synthesized heaviness w/ a pounding drum machine effect - feel. Industrialish heaviness with effected voals sounding like they're run through a hollow manipulation. Actually this is pretty good. (Imperial Stab Chamber Rec.)

Hersey "Voice Your Opinion" LP

For anyone who ever wanted to do a zine for all the free records — it isn't worth it; however when you finally do get a record you wanted in the mail

Furnace @ ABC NO RIO Nov. 14 '92

break the barriers of racism. Autonomy are a good peace-punk band with a heavy animal rights message. Mixed throughout this live set are clips from demos and conversation interviews on animal rights. Whiel this is all a good thing, I really do not like rap, and therefore Frantic Puzzle goes by me without any interest. (Alternative Tape Library/ PO Box 6188/ Fullerton CA 92634)

NOFX "White Trash, Two Heebz & A Bean" CD

This new release seems better to me than some of the last releases. It screams of California. With a cross of upbeat poppiness mixed with some traditional r'n'r style guitar, harmonic melodies full of fun heartedness — it is all rather catchy. With a bit of reggae and odd bits thrown in for a full soup. (Epitaph).

The Offspring "Ignition" CD

This is my surprise of the month! I nearly mistakenly wrote this off as some more emo-pop shit, which would have been a huge mistake and loss - because I really love this! In fact I can't remember the last time I was so taken by a band, esp. one that I didn't even expect that I would like! This is definitely harmonious and catchy with an upbeat and drawing sing-song vocal style. And I find myself dancing around the room with my dog listening to this one, and then singing the songs in my head while I ride the subway. And the more I listen to this, the more I hear these little reminders of the HC/punk from Calif. that I used to love so much years ago, so maybe it's not so surprising that I like this so much. Well anyway, I really dig this and admit that it is a surprise to myself, but this is fun happy and enjoyable music!! (Epitaph)

Terveet Kadet "Bizarre Domination" ep

Wow, good one here - excellent Sweedish hard-core ala Discharge esque — even the vocals are dischargish. Weird pic. on the cover of a fully leather clad person that is creepy, but moving past that, these 5 songs are good! (Alternative Action Rec./ PO Box 74/ SF 11101 Riihimaki Finland)

Hold Your Dad Down 7"

2 songs here with a new wave feel to them that is sort of appealing. The sung vocals (semi-U2ish??) over an patterned semi-heavy repitiousness cow-bell tinge. Definitely an appealing quality, though it's different from my usual taste. (Brick Row Music/ PO Box 4110/ Star City WV 26505)

Pagan Renewal / Conic Reaction split tape

Both these bands go together fairly well in that they are both industrial gothic with a synthesized eeriness. This works pretty well for me as background music, but what is cool is the transmixing of scenes showing a message of animal rights. Comes with a booklet too. (Ind. Alt. Tape Lib./ Po Box 6188/ Fullerton CA 92634)

Namland 7"

Illinois, 1990, 6 guys get together for a practice and record these 5 songs. My first reaction is to cringe when I hear the blast beat songs with grind-core vocals. However - consider the fact that this was done 3 years ago, when this was new and also the way it was done (it sounds great!). Two bass' (something I have always been in favor of) make this powerful as hell. 2 of the songs are more dragged out adding a slow heaviness which I prefer. This style has been dragged through the dirt in the last year, but you can't take that away from an old band!

slightly rockiness which keeps it all going — excellent shit! Definately a must have for all punks!! (Rust Records PO Box 81942/ Pittsburgh PA 15217)

Corrosão Caotica 7"

For Portugal here is some Spanish sung punk. This is ok, but doesn't really do anything ground-breaking. Average bouncy hardcore-punk that is catchy but not so memorable. (Slime Rec. Apartado 1789/ 1017 Lisboa Codez Portugal)

Dagma Mundista "Cloudy Gray Skies" 7"

This is the awesomest! Every note is right on and this just sucks me right in! To a relatively slow yet varying hard punk they've got a great sound! They've got a strong connection with the Spanish punk scene in Mexico - with 1 out of 3 song shere in Spanish. These 3 songs are not on the LP and esp. the title song is great! Don't let these guys go unnoticed! I mean it!! (DM - PO Box 943/ Reseda CA 91335)

Dystopia - tape

Like a thundering assault this is heavy!! The good loud recording really helps boost this up to a quality as good as any of those popular grind-metal bands and in a way is even cooler. mixing up memebers from a lot of other defunct So. Cal bands such as Confrontation, Apocalypse & Mindrot. Even though I get really tire dof a lot of this whole grind-core thing—they do it really well and this is definately good. ($3ppd Life is Abuse PO Box 541/ El Toro CA 92630)

Senza Riserve Comp. LP

This is an Itaian comp. put together to benefit Native American Indians with a massive booklet with info as well as info on bands. It's all excellent, but unfortunately in Italian. Kina, Infezione, Ulcera, Conte Zero, Contrasto, Panico, Waka Waka, DNE, CCC CNC NCN, Crime Gang Band & Officine Schwartz — over all really good — some folky stuff as well as upbeat punk and Indian chants.

an old favorite. Picture the voice that would ultimately sing "dem bones", and you ahve him singing about killing his boss. It's the best!! Everyone can only wish that their dad is this cool! (Nawpost Rec. PO Box 245/ Buchanan, NY 10511)

Hersey "Voice Your Opinion" LP

For anyone who ever wanted to do a zine for all the free records — it isn't worth it; however when you finally do get a record you wanted in the mail for review it is awesome, as is the case here! This is not quite what I expected or remembered from them. This is really hardcore, old style. Really good hardcore, with an overall speed and occasional super speed thrash. The first side is balanced out by a mid-paced "normal" vocals. Side 2 picks up on the thrashiness I remember, which gets to be a bit monotonous (I prefer the older HC). This says Dischography pt. 1 - so this seems to be a collection of old stuff (24 songs worth). Unfortunately there is no info on it - when it's from what rec. etc. which would have been nice. (Lost & Found Rec./ M Moore 8/ 3000 Hannover 1/ Germany)

RECORD REVIEWS

Earth records. With an addition of a female vocalist who ranges brilliantly from well sung harmonies to brutal nearly evil harshness (reminding me so much of Disaffected) and great music and style etc. - this just rips!!! ($5ppd Nabate/ 4000 Liege 4/ Belgium)

Reagan Youth "Live at CBGB's" Vol 1

Excellent live recording off the board from 1985, from a classic NY hardcore band!! This one's got all the best songs from the first LP — Degenerated, Go Nowhere, I hate hate, USA etc. excellent band, great recording. It's a bootleg - so look around for it!

Attack & Decay "Squirrel Sonatas in the Key of C" 7"

Fast upbeat hardcore w/ a vocal style clearly understood to the point where it is half spoken. This is apparently a demo from '87 rereleased on vinyl. 8 songs crammed on here of good old-style fast hardcore. ($4ppd Spam Dagger Rec./ PO Box 664/ Stn. C/ Toronto Ont./ M6J3S1 Canada/h).

Helkrusher "Dying For Who" 7"

Ya might know some of these guys — it's the punk half of Helbastard that left when that band cheezed out. These guys get punker & punker with each recording. Though not the most original this is awesome great punk rock! w/ all the heaviness of Discharge influenced band. This is a band definatly worth hearing!! (Tribal War/ PO Box 20012/ Temp. Sq. Stn./ NY NY 10009)

Ganx "Out of Reach" 7"

What's great about this is the unpredictable differentness of it which really makes it stand out — quite good! With all the slow melody that the Amebix brought us, with outbursts of speeded up thrashy parts all evened out by a middle pace. The variety and overall crunch makes this really grab me! Check this out and keep an eye out for a CD with all their stuff on one. (Sound Pollution PO Box 17742/ Covington KY 41017-0742)

Union "Anaesthetized" 7"

This looks a bit different from other Tribal War releass - is it the Green on the cover, or just the fact that this is a split release with Really Fast Rec. in Sweden. Does all of Sweedens music sound like Discharge? Here is yet another Swedish-hardcore-Discharge influenced sound that is quite good! Neil has it all worked out to find all these style of bands, which is kind of cool. Good stuff. (Tribal War/ PO Box 20012/ Temp. Sq. Stn./ NY NY 10009)

Great cover of an old photo/illustration of an old man hammering a nail up his nose. Yet musically, well this has a feel of Motley crew vocals minus the "metal". The upside is that there is an excellent cover of the Buzzcocks "Orgasmadict". Mix an early Gen X feel to this creating a sort of old punk style- yet it feels "big" to me. (Alternative Action Rec./ PO Box 74/ SF11101 Riihimaki Finland)

Hybrid Children "Another Dose Up Your Nose..." 7"

Hybrid Children "Brutal Babies" 7"

This is the favorite of the 3 records I've heard—overall melodic up-beat pop punk. Sort of crossed w/ new wave gone pop-punk and a bit of glam metal (old combo huh?) But that's about it. The covers are the best part, making them worth keeping. (Alternative Action Rec./ PO Box 74/ SF11101

Charred Remains aka Man is the Bastard, Pollution Circus, One by One and Dogfight. This comes with a massive booklet coving the 500 years of Indigenous Resistance. So much could be said (as there is a lot of info here) but I'll just say this is an impressive project w/ good bands and good info on top of a good cause. How could you go wrong. ($5ppd Profane Existence/ PO Box 8722/ Mpls. MN 55408)

Surfin' Dead Boys "Surf And Destroy" 7"

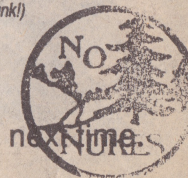

Fucking weird! The title song switches from a slow dullstooges riff into fast sruf instrumentalism. theother three songs are a lot like what you'd expect from teh band name — an even blend of Dead Boys rock-quasi sorta punk and surf music. Both styles are kinda boring. Do people surf in Finland? (Alternative Action/ PO Box 74/ SF11101 Riihimaki Finland)

Wheelchair Motherfuckers "Gerry Louis Sucks My Ass" 7"

Ok.. you expect stupid punk rock with some snotty vocalist trying to be offensive & funny, while an under-rehersed band of 15 year olds chug out two chord slop... Wrong! It's bad mosh metall Really bad. (Confinement Rec. 933 #8/ Bayberry PTE/ Grand Rapids MI 49045)

Youth Gone Mad/ Sound Bite House split 7"

Youth Gone Mad areessentially a joke band, and their side of this 7" is generic goofy punk (one fast & one slow song), with really stoopid lyrics (one chorus "you want it, you want penis"). Sound Bite House play a long clunky hardcore song with weird vocals. Ok. (Free! Call 516-689-3857 and mention S&L. Now that's punk!)

Just like being in a basement in somewhere in NYC — a squat, or ABC— local bands all playing. For Maggot this is sort of a debut (record) and quite a good one! The heaviness as well as catchiness comes across great and from seeing them so many times this is a great recording well representative of what I know. Malachi Krunch having been around longer seem to be a perfect combo pair here. They have 2 tunes of uniquely cool hardcore—somewhat disjointed heavy and punky with the insanely distorted vocals of Jim Martin. This is a real winner here! ($3.50ppd to PO Box 3028 Station D/ Ottawa Ont. K1P 6H6 Canada)

Maho Neitsyt "okei, Beibi?"

slow punk rock (accent on the "rock" part) with three chords and some Finnish guy that sounds like a Muppet on vocals. Uh, ok. Short songs, not very well written, not bad, but not memorable. (Alternative Action/ PO Box 74/ SF11101 Riihimaki Finland)

Mousetrap 7"

The last record I heard by this band was heavy on the Minutement influence but his 7" ditches the quirks of the first for a decent stab at Superchunkdom, fast poppy big guitar punk. Vast potential, but not quite there yet. The songs don't stick together, and it's kinda obvious what bands they like. (One Hour Records/ 1215 hamey/ Omaha NE 68102)

Surfin' Dead Boys "Surf And Destroy" 7"

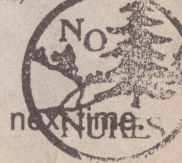

Fucking weird! The title song switches from a slow dullstooges riff into fast surf instrumentalism. theother three songs are a lot like what you'd expect from tsh band name — an even blend of Dead Boys rock-quasi sorta punk and surf music. Both styles are kinda boring. Do people surf in Finland?! (Alternative Action/ PO Box 74/ SF11101 Riihimaki Finland)

Wheelchair Motherfuckers "Gerry Louis Sucks My Ass" 7"

Ok.. you expect stupid punk rock with some snotty vocalist trying to be offensive & funny, while an under-rehersed band of 15 year olds chug out two chord slop... Wrong! It's bad mosh metal! Really bad. (Confinement Rec. 933 #8/ Bayberry PTE/ Grand Rapids MI 49045)

Youth Gone Mad/ Sound Bite House split 7"

Youth Gone Mad areessentially a joke band, and their side of this 7" is generic goofy punk (one fast & one slow song), with really stoopid lyrics (one chorus "you want it, you want penis"). Sound Bite House play a long clunky hardcore song with weird vocals. Ok. (Free! Call 516-689-3857 and mention S&L. Now that's punk!)

Hybrid Children "Brutal Babies" 7"
This is the favorite of the 3 records I've heard—overall melodic up-beat pop punk. Sort of crossed w/ new wave gone pop-punk and a bit of glam metal (old combo huh?) But that's about it. The covers are the best part, making them worth keeping. (Alternative Action Rec./ PO Box 74/ SF11101 Riihimäki Finland)

Malachi Krunch/Maggot split 7"

Just like being in a basement in somewhere in NYC—a squat, or ABC—local bands all playing. For Maggot this is sort of a debut (record) and quite a good one! The heaviness as well as catchiness comes across great and from seeing them so many times this is a great recording well representative of what I know. Malachi Krunch having been around longer seem to be a perfect combo pair here. They have 2 tunes of uniquely cool hardcore—somewhat disjointed heavy and punky with the insanely distorted vocals of Jim Martin. This is a real winner here! ($3ppd Stinky Twinkie Comm/ PO Box 1271/ New Haven CT 06505)

Not Just Lip Service comp. 7" This comp. is well intended and comes at an appropriate time when "punk" and alternative music has become so trendy. This starts out with a booklet explaining the true alternative spirit of DIY punk surviving apart from the commercial business world the mainstream. I could see this sparking a new interest in punk if you're not already familiar with this stuff—it is definatly an inspiration to see. We've got a song each from Vex (CO)—quite reminiscent of the Avengers, Autonomy (CA) English stylepeace punk, Firing Squad (CA) slow semi-grungy cool sound, Litmus Green (CA) loud fast angry vocaled pogo punk, Primitive Tribes (AZ) super Conflict sound/feel, Social Insecurity (OH) noisey duel vocaled basement punk. Who are they kidding—great bands—great spirit! Inspiring and and definatly a must! (Mass Media/ PO Box 2692/ costa Mesa CA 92626)

What ever became of Stephan (s-Winter) and John and Roy (x-Nausea)? Thorn. Soemtimes dense, industrial dance (via Godflesh). John sings 'n' plays bass. Heavy guitars, drums 'n' drum machine. They're from LA. ON Flipside records. Already 2 strikes down. the music is ok, halfway between Husker Du derived big guitar punk and post punk "alternative" rock, but both vocalists should stop trying to sing because they wind up whining instead. (Flipside PO Box 60790/ Pasadena CA 91116)

16, Krupchuck, Confused

I just finished reading through S&L numero 28, and all I can think now is WOW. The addition of the FETUS squat article left me speechless. It shed light on what squatting must actually be like - it's sort of an interest for me. The reality of poverty is everywhere. More than just squatters have to deal with it. I'm a middle class shit - if I want something I can ask Mom or Dad for it, but I still see poverty everywhere. My good punk friend who I do a 'zine with is 19, living with his wife and 2 kids. He's unemployed; His wife brings in just enough money with 2 jobs. I don't know how they do it. My girlfriend lives in a trailer. Her Mom has no job. Her father makes enough money to support him and his wife. Dawn (my girlfriend) pretty much supports herself with a shitty weekend job. My small town of 15 thousand is "home" to at least 20 homeless men and women. When I go to school I see kids who haven't showered in weeks. They're not trying to be crusty, rather their family can't afford running water. Something has to be done. People must organize, everyone can do something about shit like this. I can't tell anyone what to do to solve this, tough. It's different for each person. All of us have heard this before, but I mean it - something has got to give, and something's gonna change, it has to, NOW. After writing this I, myself, realize I've gotta make some changes. I'll try as hard as I can to do something more... punx alone can't change the world. We're an itty, bitty minority. We have to change ourselves first and carry that on to others.

I was possessed to try to write something on the state of the punk movement as of late. AARGH! What, another full scale criticism of punk? Nah. See, I'm 16, and the only real punk type in my suburban school of about 15 hundred. Sure one or two kids are into it, but... So I'd like to try to give an understanding of, well, not simply punk, but how fucked some highschool kids are.

First, there are some friends of mine who are into punk in school. Unfortunately, I fear they may give it up after college for a desk job. Who knows? I may do the same.. but if I do, please shoot me. I think punk or hardcore, Ska, Oil.. are, for some of them, just entertainment, not a movement. Just shows, music, parties, and Doc Martins. It's not all just leather jackets, mohawks, spikes and chains. It's not even just drinking, saying fuck off to people, or not giving a shit about school, either! It did do some of them good though. One pal hated all "aggots" a year ago. 411 lyrics changed that. But still I'm scared they'll for get it all in wet dreams of being rich and powerful. I've only been into punk for about two and a half years, and only really appreciated it after about a year, so someone's going to dismiss me as a stupid little want to be, who knows nothing when I say this, BUT, I think punk is a struggle, punk is art. Not so much music, but like Jamie Davis stated in S&L #28, a struggle to live in dignity and humanity, and equality. Sounds utopian? I don't wanna settle for anything less than personal freedom.

Second, there's been a lot of discussion about drugs and drinking in the punk scene lately. I don't drink or use. I think it constrains me, my mind... you're not free when drunk. How many times have you been sloshed and heard a voice in the back of your head saying, "Man, you're fucked up! Get it together!" Can you? Nope. Slave to the brew. Sure party if you want, everyone needs a release. But often it's a waste of valuable time. Seriously think of it. Punk has nothing to do with how many 40's you can tank. Once I drank myself into the hospital and I know many others who have, or come close every weekend. Just seriously consider it before you gulp the next pot of cider down, but if you do it's your choice, your time, your mind and body, your freedom.

I don't wanna sound all too depressing. DIY punk is well alive. Just look: the UAF, AYF, PE, Black Web Press, Squat or Rot, Tribal War, the distros, the zines, bands... blah blah blah. These were just some rambles, responses welcome. - Jan 4, '93

"Cajoling"

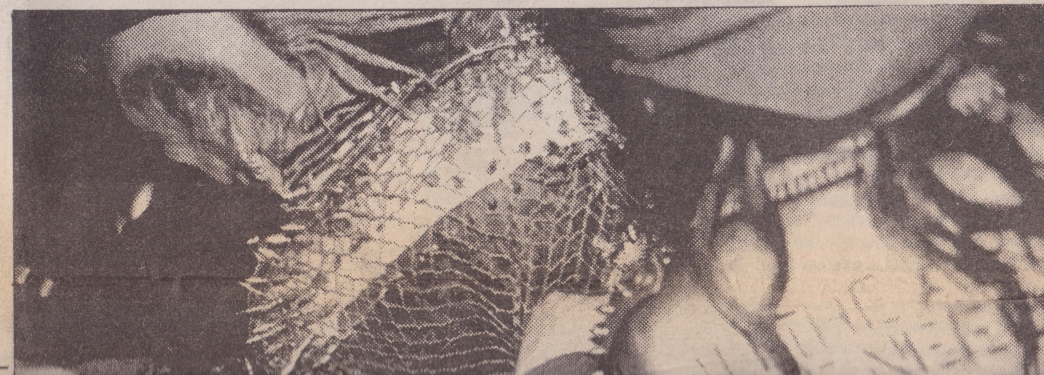

I recently finished a very exhaustive and extensive course fully dedicated to studying AIDS. Even though we are in the midst of a bombardment of media reports on the disease, there are still a lot of controversial conspiracies of sorts regarding AIDS that I believe we are being told, or more deceptively, not being told.

For starters, one speaker told us about the real contractive measure by which AIDS is sexually transmitted. When passed along through intercourse, in many cases, the virus travels through an open sore or a cut, which permits it to directly enter the bloodstream. What does this mean? It means that it may be difficult to transmit the disease unless another sexually transmitted disease creates an easily penetrable entry way for the virus to pass into. What else might that mean? It could also mean that all kinds of this propaganda about sexually active persons, kids in particular, being at a higher risk than any other group of people, may be just a bunch of nonsense to get kids to stop having sex. While I am uncertain about the studies used to suggest these "conclusions", I am kind of irritated that people, whether it be the federal government or local health departments, continually induce fear into other individuals using such nonsense as their most effective means.

I also learned that yes, women are being infected with AIDS at a faster rate than men. The main reason, however, is not because of women having sex with infected persons. HIV is more commonly passed to women (and men) by IV drug use, or sharing needles with people who are HIV positive or have AIDS.

While this class taught me a great deal about the virus, and many of the other concerns which linger beneath the umbrella of AIDS, it also reaffirmed a number of things for me. We have got to be aware of the disease, but continue to function in this world confident that there is a certain degree of trust that bonds us, as humans, and that, no matter what kind of spook the government may try and terrify us with, we should not let that alter the level of trust we have with one another. The whole moralist message of abstinence being the only way to prevent the disease is absurd. As frightened as I am by the implications of AIDS, I do not think it should intimidate anyone into celibacy. While I am not normally a strong advocate for sexual relations, part of the whole argument against the bureaucrats is that sex can continue to flourish, only nowadays, it may be a better idea to use a condom, or a dental dam, or glove. I guess the point of this is that I believe there is a lot to be worried about. This virus is assailing people and taking their lives without the slightest bit of mercy; but, I think one way of combating that is by not succumbing to any pleas of abstinence; instead, continuing to have sex, only this time around, permitting a few additional preventive devices of sorts to be included in the act. Thank you.

Leonard Peltier

I just saw a film that I think everyone in the US and Europe should see. The film I am referring to is Incident at Oglala, which is the story of the imprisonment of AIM activist Leonard Peltier by the US government on murder charges. The murder was that of two FBI agents in 1975. At the time the Sioux as a people were torn in a conflict between those to assimilate into Amerikan Society and those who chose to hold on to the shattered remnant of their identity and past. On the reservation assimilationist Indians shot up the homes of those who chose to hold on to their culture. The atmosphere was one of tension and fear, when the two white FBI agents stormed into Oglala with their guns raging, they were killed. Leonard Peltier was an activist for the American Indian Movement who had come to Oglala to help his people reclaim bits of their lost heritage. The only evidence against Leonard Peltier is circumstantial. The evidence against him is a burned rifle that he may have had in a car he may have been in at Oglala in 1975. The FBI didn't seem to like the taste of its own medicine. Backing up Leonard's Conviction is the centuries old US tradition of treating the inhabitants of the New World with torture, murder, rape, slavery, and lies. The US government broke every single treaty it ever signed with Indians whom were little more than a stumbling block to the glorious greed of Manifest Destiny. Would you expect the US government to break with tradition and let Leonard be free?? NO! Leonard Peltier is a victim of the murderous hatred of the US government.

Now we are changing to a "liberal" president, who could set Leonard free to let him live out his life with his family and loved ones. Sure writing letters won't help make a difference, but you get to send politicians hate mail, so write!!!

Sid Vicious being the useful, chaotic, reckless fuck shit up revolutionary and Johnny Rotten being the well-thought out and experienced introducer of the youth-oriented ideal of Anarchism. And of course, Rotten is still alive and has since gone on to make much more money than he used to, and Vicious died of a heroin overdose as a pathetic loser before he even had a chance to get old — the punk rockers' death. (-stupidity, ed.) Oh while I'm on the subject of heroin, let me draw from my vast collection of chemical-facts and inform you that most heroin "overdoses" aren't caused by the heroin, but are usually caused more by the many impurities in "street" heroin. And if you're into heroin or want to make people think you are (why would you-ed), you should read Junky by William S. Burroughs because it's a really swell book about drugs.

Well, I got a little side-tracked there, sorry. My point was that punk rockers have existed since the beginning of civilization (you didn't think all those evolved by themselves, did you?), and punk rockers will always exist. Let me explain my definition of a punk rocker as someone who is way different from everyone else to the point of being rejected and dejected by mainstream circles and thus resorts to small social groups called "scenes" that claim to be doing a lot of good for the world. I'll also point out that it is my opinion that clothing styles have nothing to do with being punk, that is for fashion-trendy people to follow who aren't yet developed in their thinking skills. Being punk is having an attitude problem to the point of making it your way of life, being so goddamn arrogant that you make the people around you think, "God, what an asshole." I've seen people who've never even heard of a punk scene act punk as fuck wherever they may be, so it's got nothing to do with the clothes you wear, it's thinking of yourself so important to other people that you let them know it.

So just remember that the next time you're slagging some person moving in on your politically-correct territory who's not dressed in the proper attire, who really gives a fuck what you wear on your body? It's what's inside that counts, and if you don't have it together in there you're just not any kind of self-respecting punk. If you're one of those people you belong with the rest of the malloids who completely go apeshit over a stupid band like Nirvana that's just another sell-out. And if you think I'm upset, you're damn right I am. But I'm punk enough to say I don't give a fuck anymore and you can suck my big toe if you don't like it. The Young Ones, now they were punk. And don't even think about forgetting the chaos, just remember to live it. HA HA HA HA HA!
